

Boston Catholic Journal

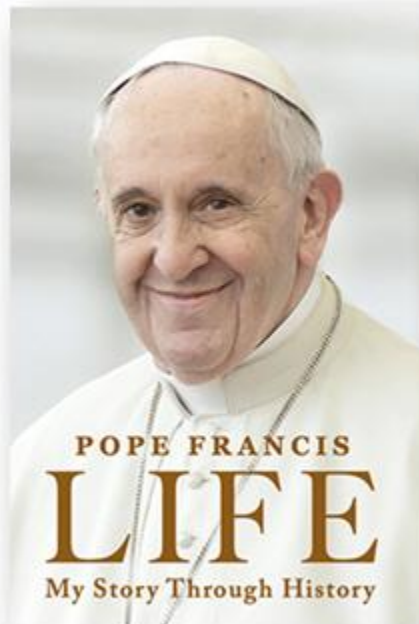

NIHIL NISI IESUM

Dedicated to Mary, Mother of God

Salus Animarum Suprema Lex Esto (Canon Law 175)

The Salvation of Souls is the Supreme Law in the Church

Can You Believe This?

Such Shameless Self-Promotion!

“My story through history” ...

not just through “my papacy.”

not just through “my life.”

not just through “my struggles.”

... but through “history”!

Of the 265 lesser men who populated the papacy before Francis soiled the seat of Peter, none dared to view himself through an inverted scope that encompassed his measure since Herodotus and Thucydides began inditing the annals of history through events far more significant than the mean and self-obsessive life of Jorge Bergoglio.

What shameful self-adulation, what an embarrassment to every Catholic!

It is totally worthy of Francis-the-Famously-Humble.

Geoffrey K. Mondello
Editor
Boston Catholic Journal

Monday April 8, 2024

Printable PDF Version

It can be found in the Fiction section of your favorite book store

Photo credit: from <https://www.publishersweekly.com/pw/by-topic/industry-news/religion/article/93932-pope-francis-new-book-bears-his-personal-touch.html>

On the other hand, in the Non-Fiction section of your favorite book store you may find this:

“You Had Better Listen!”

Actually, you needn't buy the book (there really isn't one); but you will find the short truthful story at the link below:

Francis: the Great Divider in the “Post-Catholic-Conciliar-church”

It is a markedly different presentation, just as the photographs are markedly different, but equally authentic (actually, Francis personally choose the picture of his younger, more amiable self for the book cover of his self-memorialization, “Pope Francis Life, My Story Through History.”)

It is much different in tenor, as you will see, than the picture of him benignly smiling for the photographer. You see undisguised malice and arrogance as he contemptuously dismisses those whom he deems less than totally cooperative with “Team Bergoglio.” Ruthless is the word that immediately comes to mind; a word that appears to echo through the halls of the Vatican as well. But you already know that, don’t you?

